

God’s House of Prayer for a Spiritual Harvest

“Only God can make a wave.” – Rick Warren

“God’s kingdom comes even without our prayer...” – Martin Luther

“Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest.” – Jesus Christ (John 4:35)

The Spiritual Harvest...

...is _____ but _____ - _____ : Urgent

...belongs to the _____ but is _____ :
The Mission of God

...is _____ - _____ but _____ : “Glocal”

Three Key Ways you can pray for workers in the harvest:

1. Pray that our eyes and hearts are open to the harvest of God.
2. Pray that those who serve in the spiritual harvest fields may do so with joy—according to their various gifts.
3. Pray that God’s kingdom will come among us and that we will recognize His presence and live to his glory.

Blanks: plentiful, short-staffed; Lord, ours to gather; far-spread, local
 29 May 2011—Sixth Sunday of Easter
 Dr. David Bahn, Senior Pastor
 dbahn@stjohn-lutheran.net
 St. John Messages on the Web: <http://www.stjohn-lutheran.net/>